SC Court of Appeals

The appellate in this case, will respectfully move before this, Honorable Court, by way of this writ of mandamus to ask, that an order be issued to the, South Carolina Department of Corrections, to transfer the one, James Gardner, #177263 back to the Detention Center in County of detention where appellate, was unfairly convicted.

The appellate's, "conviction was reversed" by an opinion of this, Honorable Court.

This reason for transfer request are,

1. "To assure a safer environment for appellate."
2. To allow appellate an opportunity to resolve the pending charge without any further delay by way of negotiations, etc.
3. The appellate may be entitled to a bond and possible release on lesser included offense.
4. "The appellate is no longer convicted of charge."

This request for transfer is proper and

pg. 2
is not overly burdensome to the South Carolina Department of Corrections.

Therefore, the appellate respectfully ask in, good faith, that an order for transfer be granted at the earliest date possible.

Respectfully Submitted,
