Good morning, Stormy,

On August 6, 2024, our office submitted and the Court subsequently filed, a Consent Motion for Extension of Time to File Petition for Rehearing in the matter detailed in the subject line of this email. On August 7th, we received a Deficiency Letter from the Court regarding the Proof of Service and fee for a motion submission. On August 7th, the Court filed our submitted Proof of Service and on August 9th, the Court received and filed our letter which enclosed the filing fee, which remedied the August 7th Deficiency Letter.

During the first part of this week, I contacted the Court and on Wednesday, the 14th, I spoke with you and you confirmed what I was told in my previous calls, which is that our office should proceed as if the Consent Motion has been granted, even though we did not receive an Order from the Court.

Please confirm that my understanding of the Court's informal instruction was correct in that our office was told to proceed as if the Consent Motion was granted, which in turn nullified the due date of August 15, 2025 for a Petition for Rehearing.

Thanks so much for your continued help with this, and have a great weekend,

Anne M. Johnson
