Good morning.

I am the legal assistant to Jeanmarie Tankersley who represents the Respondent in the above-referenced matter. Ms. Tankersley gave birth to her first child - a beautiful daughter - last night.

Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter in this matter were filed yesterday. By my calculations, the latest date that the Final Briefs will be due is November 4, 2024.

Ms. Tankersley will be on maternity leave and has Court protection through November 22, 2024, so she has asked me to inquire about how that will affect the due date of the Final Briefs in this matter. Please advise at your earliest opportunity.

Thank you for your assistance, and we look forward to your response.
