Ms. Salinas:

Under the appellate rules, I need the original transcript submitted within 60 days from August 21, 2024 (October 20, 2024). I would like the electronic transcript expedited, but the original transcript can go the normal route.

Ms. Salinas:

I filed my notice of appearance in the case yesterday as attorney for Ms. Linda Donovan. A copy of that entry is attached. Mr. Brad Brodie, also copied on this email, was her trial counsel. I am sure that he can confirm I am authorized to request the transcript.

In the meanwhile, I have deposited in the mail a check for $3,391.70 with a copy of that invoice today.

Warmest regards,

Thank you for patiently waiting and we apologize for the delay while we researched this. Since we are unable to verify that you are a party to this case, we would need confirmation that we are able to release production of this transcript. We would appreciate it if the parties addressed on this email would confirm that we may proceed in producing this transcript at this time.

With confirmation that we may begin production of this transcript, please see the attached estimate for the Hearing, which includes an expedited fee for delivery within 7 business days. Since no transcript was ordered at the time of the Hearing, the cost of the original transcript will be passed on to you. Please note that the final invoice may vary depending on the actual number of pages transcribed.

We look forward to hearing back as soon as possible from the parties addressed on this email to proceed. Thank you.
