Hope this reaches you in good spirit. I'm writing on behalf of my loved one who has been incarcerated since 2017 for a crime he had nothing to do with. From my knowledge I was told that his appeal was sent in for review. I'm just concerned because we have 6 boys and he has missed so much and I just need him home because it's hard raising boys without there dad. If you can find it in your heart to see if this case can be reviewed because it's tuff for me having to work two jobs and also making sure my loved one is ok in prison. His information is below
