To Whom It May Concern,

I received the below communication from the Court of Appeals today with attached clocked in copies of:

- ☐☐☐ Stewart v. SC CVS – AIB (Cover).pdf; and
- ☐☐☐ Stewart v. SC CVS – DOM.pdf

I represent respondents in this matter and would like to point out that this court granted appellant 10 additional days on 8/7/2024 to file the cover page for her now 3rd Initial Brief as well as 10 additional days on 8/7/2024 to file her table of contents and statement of issues on appeal. She had previously filed her Designation of Matter for her now 3rd Initial Brief on 8/1/2024. This document was clocked in as received on 8/1/2024 and a stamped copy was sent to the parties on 8/2/2024.

So that respondents are not confused when responding to appellant's submissions, can you please clarify whether you have accepted appellant's filing, dated 8/7/2024 with the heading "Table of Contents" that appellant labeled "xxTOC_Stewart vs CVS.pdf" which was sent based on the Court's request for a Table of Contents within 10 days of 8/7/2024, as the Table of Contents? Alternatively, is this document being accepted as a Designation of Matter based on the Court's labeling of the document "Stewart v. SC CVS – DOM" although such Designation of Matter was previously filed on 8/1/2024 and not thereafter requested by the Court to be re-filed?

Thank you for any clarification you can provide.

Sincerely,
Michelle Yarbrough
Attorney for Respondents
