STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE SUPREME COURT

Fai'Quan Swindell,
Applicant,

Case No. 2023-CP-40-06647

v.

Certification and Explanation of Appeal

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

PCR Counsel has filed this notice of appeal on defendant's behalf. Counsel is unaware of any good faith explanation pursuant to Rule 243(c). As an officer of the Court, I am unable to set forth any arguable basis as to why the PCR Court's decision to summarily dismiss the application was inappropriate.

Fai'Quan Swindell is copied on the notice of appeal paperwork. PCR Counsel requests that Mr. Swindell be given twenty days from the date of this filing to file a pro se explanation of appeal with the Court as to why he believes the circuit court's determination was improper.
