

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Dudley B. Mack, Petitioner,

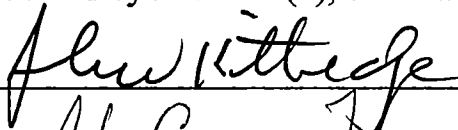

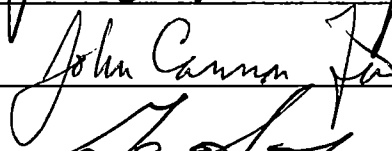

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2024-001263

ORDER

Petitioner filed a notice of appeal from the denial of his application for post-conviction relief (PCR). Petitioner filed a "Brief of Appellant," which we construe as his explanation required by Rule 243(c), SCACR. In the explanation, Petitioner has failed to show there is an arguable basis for asserting that the dismissal of his PCR application was improper. Therefore, we dismiss the notice of appeal in this matter. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221(b), SCACR.
