ATTORNEY FOR APPELLANT

Appellant hereby moves pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, for a 30-day extension of the time in which to serve and file the Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as the following shows:

1. Appellant's counsel has recently begun his fourth semester teaching two sections of media law and ethics at the University of South Carolina and is preparing for upcoming hearings this month as well as trials next month.
2. On August 27, 2024, the undersigned counsel for Appellant received the final transcripts of the proceedings below in this appeal.
3. Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter are presently due Wednesday, September 26, 2024. If the request is granted, Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal will be due on October 28, 2024.
4. This is the first extension Appellant has requested in this appeal.
5. Respondent has consented to this proposed extension of time to serve the initial brief and designation of matter.
6. The undersigned has served this document on opposing counsel by email to registered AIS email address on the date given below.

WHEREFORE Appellant prays for an order extending the time in which to serve and file the Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal by 30 days, to October 28, 2024.

September 13, 2024

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Taylor Smith
