Hello,

Here are the dates for my next round of cancer treatments:

January 9, 2025
January 16, 2025
January 23, 2025

It would probably not be good to schedule any thing the day after these treatments as well. Sometimes they cause me to be very tired the next day.

I believe I have exam scheduled for March 10, 2025, if I remember correctly, for them to scope my bladder.

If these dates change, I will let you know.

Regards,

Thomas E Dukes
