

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Joseph Kelsey, #217218, Appellant,

v.

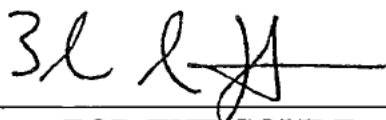

South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2024-001471

ORDER

Appellant filed a notice of appeal from an order issued by the Administrative Law Court affirming Respondent's decision to deny him parole. Appellant also filed a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. Appellant has not met his burden of establishing he has a statutory or constitutional right to proceed in forma pauperis. See Ex parte Martin, 321 S.C. 533, 471 S.E.2d 134 (1995); James v. S.C. Dep't of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Servs., 377 S.C. 564, 660 S.E.2d 288 (Ct. App. 2008) (holding the denial of an inmate's parole request absent a permanent denial of parole eligibility does not implicate a state-created liberty interest). After careful consideration, we deny the motion without prejudice to Appellant filing a second motion to proceed in forma pauperis showing he is entitled to do so.

Appellant has twenty days from the date of this order to pay the $250 filing fee. Failure to provide the filing fee will result in the dismissal of this appeal.
