Re: Brown V. State of South Carolina
Appellate Case No. 2013-000001
Extension of Time SCACP 234(B)

Dear Clerk:

In lieu of a formal Motion Pursuant to the above rules. The petitioner moves to extend the time in which to reply to and file his response in the above stated cause. This motion is made due to the petitioner looks to retain an attorney to purpose of this second extension is to determine that I had proper time to get all rightful documents to the attorney for review. This motion is not made for delay and nor would the respondent be prejudice thereby.

Therefore Petitioner moves the court for (30) additional day to make his response and for such other relief the court deems just, fair and proper.

Respectfully Submitted,
