RE: Terrance McCall, # 339911 v. South Carolina Department of Corrections
Appellate Case No. 2024-001077

Dear Mr. McCall:

My office received your correspondence dated August 23, 2024 yesterday, September 25, 2024. In your correspondence, you expressed concerns about not receiving the settlement funds that you agreed to in August. After receiving your letter, I looked into this matter, and discovered that Mr. Darwin had inadvertently failed to send the signed settlement agreement to our office. We immediately reached out to him and he sent the document. We requested the check yesterday. This was an unfortunate mistake that was undoubtedly a result of the large volume of these cases. We profusely apologize for the delay, but we have every intention of getting you the funds you agreed to and will do everything possible to expedite the process.

Sincerely,

Christina Catoe Bigelow
Deputy General Counsel
South Carolina Department of Corrections
