Good Afternoon Ms. Secka:

As you are aware, per your request, I filed a Motion to Withdraw in Florence County Court of Common Pleas on September 13, 2024. A copy of the Motion to Withdraw was mailed to you USPS Priority Express which was delivered to your residence on Saturday, September 14, 2024. The express envelope was returned to the Post Office because you refused to sign for the envelope. You are also aware that on September 17, 2024, a Motion to Withdraw was filed in the SC Court of Appeals. You were served a copy of that Motion to Withdraw, via electronic mail on September 17, 2024. On October 1, 2024, the SC Court of Appeals notified me that the Motion to Withdraw needed to be served on you, via certificate of service, which was filed with SC Appeals Court and emailed to you on October 2, 2024. In addition, a copy of the Motion to Withdraw was placed with the USPS postage prepaid to your home address. Please give me a call if you have any questions, Thank you, Darryl

Dear Attorney Caldwell,

I contacted the appeals court today and I spoke with Jaqueline. I understand that you filed your original Motion in the wrong courts and jurisdiction. Please forward a copy of the latest Motion in accordance with the rules of conduct as a licensed attorney in the State of South Carolina. You owe me a duty and the Courts candor with your conduct. Please send all correspondence pdf to my email. The courts misunderstood my address to be that of your law firm. Please forward whatever was sent to you that was meant for me. Concealing legal documents that belong to me violates ethics!
