Dear Clerk:

I hope this email finds you well. The Appellant's final brief and designation are due today. Mr. Farnsworth has been without wifi or power since Thursday evening.

Mr. Farnsworth is asking for a short extension for time on this final brief (depending on the conditions at his Virginia office), as he drove to up to his Virginia office in hopes there is wifi and power there. He was caught in traffic and has been on the road most of the day.

I understand approximately 1/3 of the state was affected by this storm.

Opposing counsel was notified this morning of Mr. Farnsworth's intention to request an extension this morning. No response has been received as of yet.

Please advise whether this honorable Court approves this extension given the circumstances.
Thank you

Best,

Lauren
