RE: State v. Nathaniel Glenn
Appellate Case No.: 2013-000919

Dear Ms. Allen:

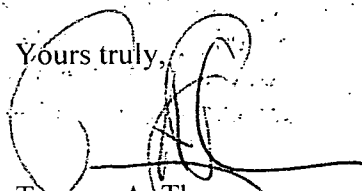

I received an email Thursday, September 5, 2012 from Appellate Defense regarding the above referenced case. They indicated to me that they would be unable to represent Mr. Glenn. On Mr. Glenn's behalf, I recently filed a Notice of Intent to Appeal an Order from The Honorable Edward W. Miller and The Honorable Letitia H. Verdin on August 15, 2013.

I was retained to represent Mr. Glenn in a Lower Court, but pursuant to our Retainer Agreement, the fee that he paid for my services does not include an Appeal. I wrote Mr. Glenn and have notified him of the information I received from Appellate Defense. I have also asked that he contact me, as soon as possible, in order to discuss my representation.

There is no transcript in this matter. According to my calculations, the Initial Brief is due, September 14, 2013. I would respectfully request an extension of time for the filing of the Initial Brief in order that the issue of representation can be resolved.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Yours truly,

Tommy A. Thomas
