MOTION TO STAY

To: The Honorable Court

Comes Now, Alexis English, the Appellant in the above-referenced matter, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court for a stay of the execution of the eviction order pending the outcome of this appeal. In support of this Motion, the Appellant states the following:

The Appellant has filed a timely Notice of Appeal against the decision of the Magistrate Judge.

The Appellant has been adversely affected by recent circumstances, including loss of employment due to the closure of her job and the impact of Hurricane Helene.

A stay is necessary to prevent irreparable harm to the Appellant during the pendency of this appeal.

Granting this Motion to Stay would not prejudice the Respondent and would serve the interests of justice.

WHEREFORE, the Appellant requests that this Honorable Court grant her Motion to Stay the eviction order pending the outcome of this appeal.
