To whom it may concern,
I, Clayton Hall, am here by requesting the Columbia Court of appeals email the Lancaster South Carolina Magistrate Court at: tcook@lancaster.sc.net The following information.

The judge In Lancaster South Carolina is requesting a written notice about the rid of ejection. There was a set out date for October 14th 2024, however Felicia and Graham came to Columbia an appealed to the judge's dismissal of the appeal in Lancaster South Carolina. The lower court in Lancaster somehow seems to think that since they did this appeal the set-out date come to a halt, however I was told by the Columbia Court of appeals that this in no way stops the rid of the ejection because they 'did not' file a motion request to stay.

So, if the Columbia Court of appeals could send an email explaining this to the lower court, it would be most appreciative.

My contact information is as follows:

803-235-1284 I am the homeowner.

I have a property manager
Heartland realty . Please include them in this email. jake@myheartlandrealty.com

Also additional question is can I sell this house while they are still in it.

Thank you
Sincerely,
Clayton Hall
