RE: McAvoy to Town of Hilton Head Island
Appellate Case 2024-000961
My File THH-22-006

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am writing to request a 30 day extension to file Respondents Initial Brief and Designation of Matter for the Record on Appeal. I have corresponded with James G. Carpenter, Appellant's Council, and he has no objection. A copy of our exchange of correspondence is attached, as well as the filing fee in the amount of fifty and no/100 ($50.00) Dollars. By my count the due date is Monday, October 14, 2024, and so the Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter would be due on November 13, 2024, if this request is granted. Thank you for your assistance with this request. I am,

Sincerely,

COLTRANE & WILKINS, LLC

Use of this system constitutes your agreement to the service conditions in the current FedEx Service Guide, available on fedex.com. FedEx will not be responsible for any claim in excess of $100 per package, whether the result of loss, damage, delay, non-delivery, misdelivery, or misinformation, unless you declare a higher value, pay an additional charge, document your actual loss and file a timely claim. Limitations found in the current FedEx Service Guide apply. Your right to recover from FedEx for any loss, including intrinsic value of the package, loss of sales, income interest, profit, attorney's fees, costs, and other forms of damage whether direct, incidental, consequential, or special is limited to the greater of $100 or the authorized declared value. Recovery cannot exceed actual documented loss. Maximum for items of extraordinary value is $1,000, e.g. jewelry, precious metals, negotiable instruments and other items listed in our Service Guide. Written claims must be filed within strict time limits, see current FedEx Service Guide.
