I'm sure this was just an oversight by Mr. Swerling's office staff since the Circuit Solicitor where a crime is committed would typically be copied on the criminal appeals filings.

However, we should not be copied on the further filings on this case since my office and I are not parties to this case. Because of my close friendship with the deceased victim Kenneth Davis McClendon and his family, I conflicted the prosecution of the case to the Attorney General's office the day of the homicide (May 7, 2023). Just wanted to make sure the Court was aware of this, so that my office is not listed on the caption of the case or any further filings.

Please do not hesitate to call me if the Court needs any further clarification on this matter.

David M. Stumbo
8th Circuit Solicitor
