Last October a tax levy was placed on my check. I went to the landlord and let them know that I was going to pay my rent. It would just be a little late. She told me to pay it as soon as possible. At first she didn't apply all the late fees but later she went in and added them. In December I paid $900.00 leaving $80.00 balance. The landlord did an eviction and I contacted the courts asking for a hearing. It was granted. On the day of the hearing my daughter was missing in Greenville so I missed the hearing. When talking to the landlord I again let her know what was going on she told me I needed to pay the $80.00 plus all the court fees and the January rent by the next morning. When I told the landlord I would have it in the night deposit she told me she wasn't going to accept it and I needed to move.
