

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Jason M. Aryeh, Respondent,

v.

Olivia R. Aryeh, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2023-001334

---

ORDER

---

On September 9, 2024, Respondent moved to expedite this appeal "without any further extensions for either party." Appellant filed a return, opposing the motion to expedite. After careful consideration, we deny Respondent's motion to expedite. However, either party may file a return opposing a motion for an extension of time for this court to consider on an individual basis. See Rule 263(b), SCACR (allowing this court to extend or shorten the time for performing any act under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules except the time for serving a notice of appeal).

Additionally, Respondent requested this court order Appellant "to copy the Respondent on any written communications with the [c]ourt using the same means used to communicate with the [c]ourt, be they by email or more traditional correspondence." After careful consideration, we deny Respondent's request. See Rule 262(a)(3), SCACR ("Except for petitions for rehearing (Rule 221) and motions for reinstatement (Rule 260), filing may be accomplished by . . . [f]iling the document by electronic means in a manner provided by order of the Supreme Court of South Carolina."); Methods of Electronic Filing and Service Under Rule 262 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, para. (b)(2), S.C. Sup. Ct. Order (as amended April 24, 2024) (allowing filing by email by lawyers and non-lawyers); Rule 263(c), SCACR (providing a list of the methods of service to include personal delivery, depositing a copy in the U.S. mail, or serving in a manner provided by order of the Supreme Court of South Carolina); Methods of Electronic Filing and Service Under Rule 262 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, para. (d)(1), S.C. Sup. Ct. Order (as amended April 24, 2024)

(allowing only lawyers admitted to practice law in South Carolina to use email to serve a document on another lawyer admitted to practice law in South Carolina).

We are cognizant of Appellant failing to serve filings on Respondent, and this court has sent letters noting the deficiencies in those instances. We take this opportunity to remind Appellant that she must serve Respondent and provide proof of service for any document filed with this court. See Rule 262(b), SCACR ("Any document filed with the appellate court shall be accompanied by proof of service showing the document has been served on all parties.").

Finally, on September 30, 2024, Appellant requested a second extension of time to serve and file her final brief and the record on appeal. Although Appellant filed a proof of service for the record on appeal on August 12, 2024, Respondent informed this court that Appellant failed to serve the record on appeal. Respondent filed a return, objecting to Appellant's request for an extension of time. After careful consideration, Appellant's request for an extension of time to serve and file the record on appeal is granted. Appellant must serve and file the record on appeal no later than October 30, 2024. Further, Appellant must serve and file her final brief within twenty days of serving and filing the record on appeal. No further extensions will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances.
