ATTORNEY FOR APPELLANT

Appellant hereby moves pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, for a 30-day extension of the time in which to serve and file the Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as the following shows:

1. Appellant's counsel has been significantly burdened by teaching two sections of media law at the University of South Carolina and meeting the demands of his clients to competently serve their best interests. This past week Appellant's counsel has had numerous trials in the Lowcountry which have hindered his ability to finish drafting the initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal.
2. Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter are presently due today, Monday, October 28, 2024. If the request is granted, Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal will be due on November 27, 2024.
3. This is the second extension Appellant has requested in this appeal.
4. Respondent has consented to this proposed extension of time to serve the initial brief and designation of matter.
5. The undersigned has served this document on opposing counsel by email to registered AIS email address on the date given below.

WHEREFORE Appellant prays for an order extending the time in which to serve and file the Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal by 30 days, to November 27, 2024.

October 28, 2024

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Taylor Smith
