Good morning. I write to let the court know I received the transcript this morning. By my count, that puts the deadline for the appellants' initial brief at December 2, 2024, since December 1 is a Sunday.

Thank you.

Sir or Madam:

I write to note that the fault in not getting the transcript before now is mine. I had thought I had done all that needed to be done to get the transcript, but I had not. I have now sent payment for the transcript to the court reporter and expect to receive the transcript directly. I believe this has taken care of what needed to be done.

Thank you.
