

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Sharon Brown, Appellant,

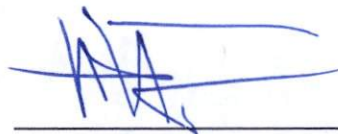

v.

Cherokee County School District One, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2022-001582

ORDER

On May 28, 2024, Appellant filed her initial brief and designation of matter. On August 23, 2024, Respondent served and filed a motion to dismiss, arguing Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter were not in compliance with Rules 208 and 209 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Appellant filed a return, asking for the opportunity to correct the errors in her initial brief and designation of matter. Respondent filed a reply. After careful consideration, we deny Respondent's motion to dismiss. However, we strike Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter. Within thirty days of the date of this order, Appellant shall serve and file an amended initial brief and designation of matter that complies with this court's rules. Specifically, the amended initial brief shall include "references to the transcript, pleadings, orders, exhibits, or other materials which may be properly included in the Record on Appeal [see Rule 210(c)] to support the salient facts alleged." Rule 208(b)(4), SCACR. Further, Appellant's designation of matter "shall set forth with specificity those parts of the transcript, pleadings, orders, exhibits, or other materials which he proposes to include in the record on appeal." Rule 209(a), SCACR.¹

FOR THE COURT

¹ After careful consideration, we also deny Respondent's request for sanctions.
