Dear Mrs. Jenny Kitchenings

I'm in receipt of your letter of dismissal of my appeal, and I first want to thank you for looking over my Appeal and rendering a decision, but I'm a little confused on the fact of the reason why I filed an appeal. My appeal was withdrawn because Judge Pope decided that no one showed up for the representation for the State, so she Judge Pope, ordered the Appeal to be DISMISSED, so the appeal was withdrawn because it was dismissed in my favor.

Well, I received a call and information to return to court for the same issue so therefore how could have my appeal be withdrawn. If my appeal was looked at closely there's no way that this issue couldn't have been seen and understood.

With the decision that was made, I ask, where is the justice and fairness, for a tax paying citizen like myself, it's not fair and I will continue to fight for justice.

In Kind Regards, I Remain

Mildred S. Starlings
