SC Court of Appeals

October 23, 2024

The South Carolina Court of Appeals
1200 Senate Street
Columbia, SC 29201

Porter Bankhead, Barbara Simplice, Sarah Dennis

v.

Alicia Taylor, Frank Christopher Taylor, Stephen Anthony Taylor, Marcus Bankhead, Robert Erwin Bankhead, Florence Bankhead, Sandra McKinney Spears, Sharon McKinney Threadcraft, Kevin McKinney, Kimberly McKinney McElhaney

Appellate Case No. 2022-001591

The Honorable Teasa Kay Weaver
York County
Trial Court Case 2021CP4601165

Appellants seek clarification from the Court findings not clear as why the Court ignored Appellants' replies Initial Brief, and Proof of Service (FORM 7), all submitted in the format under Rules 208 and 209. Appellants claim they addressed the Court's deficiencies noted in its letter of September 24, 2024. Appellants' Initial Brief followed the format outlined at <https://www.sccourts.org>, submitted in our appeal of a lower court order rejecting Appellants' Request for Consideration of their force sale filing.

Appellants notified Respondents via mail through the United States Postal Service (USPS) following South Carolina Court of Appeals guidelines. It appears the Court ignored Appellants' filing and did not consider Appellants' merits of the Case in its brief to the Court's letter to Appellants of September 24, 2024.

Appellants' pro se filing in this Case is a best approach to fulfilling State sale deed clearance of subject property. Costs incurred in retaining an attorney would eclipse the value of subject property.
