Be it known this 31st day of October 2024,*

I, Carolyn Brantley, respectfully OBJECT to the unknown respondent's attempts to sway the court/Attorney General from recognizing the truth of justice I have presented, which personally affects me. I am a firsthand witness to the matters at hand, and the respondent's conjecture lacks valid testimony.

I assert that I am prejudiced and subject to a due process violation. In contrast to the unrecognized respondent, I am the "natural person," also known as the "consumer," "grantor," and "witness," in support of the "full faith and credit clause," guaranteed at Title 15 USC 1602(i). The respondent has failed to provide testimony to the contrary.

Furthermore, I affirm that the matter the respondent attempts to defend lacks standing, as it is not a sound party under South Carolina constitutional law, and they cannot provide valid testimony. NUNC PRO TUNC.

I have submitted this truth based on my firsthand account, independent of the United States or any headlined case-in-chief associate. I have responded in the nature of SWARE v. THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS* and/or *Haines v. Kerner. My statements herein are from the perspective of a firsthand witness, and my testimony is true.

My responses are supported by law, the South Carolina Constitution, and SC Rule 501.

Conclusion.

Wherefore, I find it in the best interest of the court/Attorney General for this case-in-chief to strike the respondent's frivolous October 28, 2024 filing, deeming it hearsay, in light of the evidence I have established formerly and now before the court.

Further, it is recommended that the Court/court/Attorney General establish a "Hard Look", concerning the facts I've presented at length.

Respectfully executed this 13th day of November 2024.

Carolyn Brantley
