State of South Carolina, Respondent

Appellate Case No. 2024-001061

Request For Reinstatement

1. Ronald L. Legg, Petitioner, comes before this Court to ask for a reinstatement of Appellate Case No. 2024-001061, for the following reason:

Petitioner received notice of Order of dismissal citing Petitioner failed to provide the petition for writ of certiorari and appendix.

Petitioner was under the distinct impression that the South Carolina Commission Of Indigent Defense had assigned an attorney to represent petitioner's case according to the directives in two letters received from SCCID as follows:

Exhibit (A), enclosed, from the Office of SCCID shows a letter from Sara McInnis with an enclosed application for Petitioner to return, as Petitioner complied with.

Exhibit (B), enclosed, is a letter from Della White, Administrative Coordinator, whereas, Della White implied succinctly, that "if" a decision was rendered to assign an attorney to Petitioner's case, no notification would be forthcoming, and correspondence from the assigned lawyer would not manifest for a period of longer than 60 days. More likely, 90 days.

In the letter from Della White, she states that, "if you do not hear from me, you will know that it was approved."

Petitioner never received a notification from the SCCID that the application was rejected. Thereby, Petitioner assumed, according to the "no notification," that an attorney was assigned to Petitioner's case, and Petitioner was duly waiting to hear from the attorney assigned by SCCID. Petitioner therefore assumed Petitioner's case was being handled by the assigned attorney.

Petitioner is requesting of this court to rescind the Order to dismiss. And Petitioner is requesting to please allow additional time to allow for Petitioner to locate an attorney as Petitioner resides out of State, which causes an additional hardship.
