Inside this letter is proof that there is Judges error in my case and my sixth admentment right was violated during trial. My right to a Fair trial was totally violated.

There is also DNA and Fingerprint evidence in my case its been 3 years now after my Initial brief to the appellate courts there shouldn't be any oral arguement 3.

The court erred by admitting the cell phone mapping testimony of FBI Agent Matthew Wilde, after initially granting the motion to suppress it, where the state disclosed the maps after five o'clock on the Friday afternoon before the murder trial was starting on Monday morning since the defense could not hire its own expert, which was essential to challenge the validity of this highly prejudicial technical mapping evidence at trial, which was in contravention of appellant's right to fundamental fairness.....26
