Re.: Olga Teslenko, Appellant, v. Joe Kocsis and Carpet King & Flooring, Respondents; Appellate Case No. 2024-001734, which is an appeal from Horry County court of common pleas.

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Can I designate my motion for reconsideration, which I filed with Horry County court timely after that court's decision, to be included in my record on appeal in the above case? From what I am reading online, it looks like I need that motion in my record on appeal to be able to refer to the issues raised in that motion. On the other hand, that motion was filed after the lower court's decision. But it was filed timely according to the law stipulating requirements for such motions. Is there any way you can please advise me on whether or not I can designate my motion for reconsideration, filed with the lower court, to be included in my Record on Appeal in the above case?

Sincerely,

s/ Olga Teslenko
