v.

Rachel Wilcox

Appellant

NOTICE: APPELLANT DEFENSE RECUSED CITING INCONCEIVABLE INTERPRETATION OF GROUNDS FOR APPEAL

On May 12th, 2024, I, Rachel Wilcox, submitted an appeal ON THE GROUNDS that no citizen, including myself, can willfully choose to forfeit their American Constitutional Rights & that verbally citing otherwise could not have voluntarily been done entirely independently, truthfully, &/or without an unlawfully threatening compulsion from foreign forces of evil being at play which renders any such plea arrangement invalid.

On November 14th, 2024, the office of Appellant Defence issued notice seeming to recuse itself of representation status based on/citing in part an incomprehensible interpretation of appellant's 'lack of awareness' that such Constitutional Rights had somehow been waived.

Therefore (in addition to lack of conceivably appropriate/applicable respondent(s) to serve with Notice) I, Rachel Wilcox, am requesting official Dismissal of Case No. 2023-GS-40-08168 from the SC Court of Appeals based on inability to retain professional legal representation for Appellant Case No. 2024-000796.

November 20th, 2024
