Good afternoon.

This email is in response to that below from Mary Singleton and the letter from Catherine Harrison of your office with today's date that is addressed to the undersigned.

On August 5, 2024, we received correspondence from Ms. Harrison which indicated that “each party must file an original record on appeal . . .” Accordingly, we prepared and timely filed such a Record on Appeal on behalf of the Respondent. We also followed the other instructions set forth in that letter of August 5, 2024.

A copy of the referred-to August 5, 2024 is attached for review.

Please pardon if we misunderstood the instructions in the August 5, 2024 letter.

As we finalize the Respondent’s Final Brief, we would be much obliged if you could affirmatively let us know whether we should make reference to the Record on Appeal filed by the Appellant or that which we recently filed. Thank you!

We have copied the Appellant with this e-mail.

As always, we very much appreciate your attention consideration and courtesies.

Best regards,

bby
