Dear Ms. Hudgins

SC COURT OF APPEALS

Per our phone conversation Fri/Sept 13, 13
you seem to not fully understand my requests.

As a layman my understanding of the Anders procedure. If no issue(s) of arguable merit(s) is discovered, the appeal will be dismissed and counsel's petition to be relieved will be granted.

But on the other hand, in the event, the court finds any issue(s) of arguable merit(s), the parties will be directed to submit briefs,
as the court has stated in my case.

(1) Will the submitting of the briefs - be NEW briefs - please explain

(2) Will your brief / NEW brief be on your Anders issue you raised or my pro-se issues I raised or both - please explain

- (3) Do you feel that your issue will be in conflict with the issue I raised dealing with the same matter - please explain.
- (4) Will your brief/NEed brief contain designation of matter - please explain.

I notice that Clerk, Kitchings letter to me stated briefs.

- (5) Will the State be required to file their brief in return.

Ms. Hudgins, I would appreciate your professional attention in answering the above questions.

Thank you Sincerely

cc: Clerk, Kitchings
Personal file

John Brannon

P.S. Please send me a copy of any/all brief(s).
