SC Court of Appeals

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS
STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
Case Number: 2024-000269

Motion for Leave to Submit Affidavit as Supplemental Material

Appellant: Kalishwar Das
Appellee: York County

COMES NOW the Appellant, Kalishwar Das, appearing pro se, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court for leave to file an affidavit as supplemental material in support of his final brief pursuant to Rules 242 and 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR) and following Rule 211(b) of the same. This affidavit does not alter or introduce new arguments but serves to reinforce the truthfulness of the facts already raised in the record and to address significant procedural and substantive issues in the case.

This motion is submitted in full compliance with Rule 211(b) of the SCACR, which mandates that the final brief must remain identical to the initial brief except for allowable corrections, such as typographical errors or record citations. The affidavit is not intended to amend or alter the brief but is presented as supplemental material under Rules 242 and 267, which provide the framework for submitting motions and additional materials in appellate proceedings.

Grounds for the Motion

I. Clarification of Factual Allegations:

The affidavit formally affirms compliance with court procedures and addresses previously raised allegations of security breaches stemming from unauthorized disclosures during the proceedings.

2. Materiality to the Case:

The affidavit supports claims of procedural irregularities and retaliation, specifically violations under the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA). These issues were discussed in the initial brief and are central to the Appellant's appeal.

3. No Prejudice to the Appellee:

The affidavit does not introduce new arguments or evidence beyond what is already part of the record and therefore does not prejudice the Appellee.

4. Judicial Efficiency:

Allowing the affidavit ensures that all relevant facts are presented in a clear and organized manner, aiding the court's evaluation of the claims and the integrity of the appellate process.

Relief Requested

The Appellant respectfully requests this Court grant leave to submit the affidavit as supplemental material to the final brief and accept it as part of the appellate record for consideration.

Respectfully,

/s/kalishwar das
