State of South Carolina Court of Appeals,

I'm writing about an appellate panel decision and order that was sent out on November 27, 2024. And I'm reaching out to file a Motion to Reinstate

Stated that:

ORDER

Appellant has failed to provide the order (s) and/or judgement(s) challenged on appeal, serve and file a notice of appeal in the proper format, include the names and addresses for all parties, provide proof of service for the notice of appeal, and pay the notice of appeal filing fee, as required by Rule 203 of South Carolina Appellate Court Rules and this court's letter dated November 05, 2024. According, this matter is dismissed. The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221 (b), SCACR.

I didn't receive any information by email or by mail. I contacted the Courts of Appeals November 25, 2024, and let them know that I didn't receive any information from the court. The initial appeal letter was scanned from my church email. I was informed that the information was emailed to my church email. I've checked and they couldn't find anything sent from the Court of Appeal. I called again on December 1, 2024, also gave my correct email address at that time. It was supposed to be resent to the correct email address. I didn't receive the email. I called again after I received the email dismissing the appeal. Someone was supposed to call me back, but I never received a call back. A week later I called back today, December 9, 2024 and was advised to file a Motion to Reinstate.
