Good morning,

I hope this email finds you well.

Recently, I had arranged for Cyntonio Howard to sign paperwork for SCCID in order for an appellate attorney to be appointed for him for his pending appeal with the SC Supreme Court. However, Mr. Howard had not answered several questions on that form and SCCID was therefore unable to accept it.

Therefore, I am again requesting for the signature and notarization of the attached document, the "Affidavit of Indigency." I have also attached a letter to Mr. Howard with repeated instructions and information.

I am respectfully requesting that this be expedited because the appeal is pending and the appellate process has been extended several times already in order for Mr. Howard to receive appointed appellate counsel. I am also requesting an additional extension with the appellate court to accommodate Mr. Howard's completion of this Affidavit for a second time.

Also, in lieu of mailing, you can please instead scan and email to me the Affidavit of Indigency after it is signed and notarized.

Please do not hesitate to contact me on my cell if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you so much again for your help, it is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Lauren Hobbis
