Re: Wilson v. Carolina Custom Converting, LLC
Appellate Case No.: 2020-001587

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am responding to Appellants' letter dated December 2, 2024 opposing Respondent's Motion for Costs. Appellants have failed to provide any valid basis for denying the costs permitted under Appellate Rule 222(b). Appellants' arguments in the above-referenced appeal contradict precedent, as reflected in the per curiam opinion affirming the award of post-judgment interest. These arguments lack merit, leading to the denial of Appellants' petition for writ of certiorari.

Therefore, Respondent should be awarded costs pursuant to Appellate Rule 222(b).

Respectfully submitted,

/s/W. Andrew Arnold
