

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Clara L. Brockington, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Employment and Workforce, and Belk, Inc., Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2024-001656

ORDER

---

On November 25, 2024, we dismissed this appeal because Appellant failed to provide proof of timely service of her notice of appeal as required by Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. No timely motion to reinstate was received, and remittitur was sent properly on December 12, 2024. On December 13, 2024, Appellant filed a document in which she stated she wanted to appeal this court's November 25, 2024 order. We construe this document as a motion to recall remittitur. A remittitur cannot be recalled except upon "a very strong showing . . . that the remittitur was sent down through some mistake or inadvertence on the part of this [c]ourt or its officer." State v. Keels, 39 S.C. 553, 17 S.E. 802 (1893). Appellant has failed to make such a showing. Therefore, Appellant's motion is denied.
