Plaintiff,
vs.

Defendant

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT
OF
PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

NOW COMES Synchrony Bank, the Plaintiff herein, by and through its undersigned counsel, and submits unto the Court, pursuant to Rule 56 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, the Plaintiff's Memorandum in Support of the Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment on the grounds that there are no genuine issues of material fact with regards to the Defendant's liability for the debt underlying the Plaintiff's action, and shows unto the Court as follows:

STATEMENT OF FACTS

On or about November 20, 2014, the Defendant entered into a credit agreement with Synchrony Bank, the Plaintiff herein, pursuant to which, the Plaintiff extended credit to the Defendant in the form of a Sam's Club affiliate credit card credit account bearing the account number ending in the last four digits of XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-5478, also known as the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-2251 (hereinafter, the "Defendant's Account").

The Defendant accepted and used the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff for the acquisition of goods, services, balance transfers or cash advances and thereby incurred balances due and owing on the Defendant's Account that the Defendant agreed to repay to the Plaintiff. The Defendant made payments towards the balances set forth as due and owing on the Defendant's Account until December 12, 2019. Thereafter, the Defendant defaulted on his obligation to repay to the Plaintiff the full balance incurred on the Defendant's Account.

The Defendant's acceptance and use of the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff, as well as the Defendant's payments towards the balances set forth as due on the subject account, are shown by the monthly periodic account statements dated November 24, 2014 through April 24, 2020. These account statements generated on the Defendant's Account by the Plaintiff were provided to the Defendant, at the Defendant's address(es) of record of 701 North Main Street, MC Coll, South Carolina 29570 and 3155 Mack Circle, MC Coll, South Carolina 29570. Copies of these account statements have been submitted to the Court as Exhibit "3" of the Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment and are incorporated herein by this reference.

On or about May 24, 2020, as a result of the Defendant's default on his obligation to the Plaintiff, the Defendant's Account was charged-off as an overdue and delinquent account in the amount of $9,000.83.

The Plaintiff's lawsuit in this action was filed with the Court on August 23, 2021, and the Defendant was properly served with copies of the Plaintiff's Summons and Complaint on September 27, 2021. Thereafter, the Defendant's Answer was filed with the Court on November 10, 2021.

On or about February 15, 2022, the Plaintiff served upon the Defendant certain written discovery requests consisting of the Plaintiff's First Requests for Admissions (hereinafter, the "Admissions Request"), the Plaintiff's First Interrogatories, and the Plaintiff's First Request for Production of Documents (hereinafter the "Production Requests").

On or about March 14, 2022, the Defendant served on the Plaintiff his response to the Plaintiff's first set of discovery requests is attached hereto as Exhibit "1" and incorporated herein by this reference (the Plaintiff has attached the Defendant's response, which is incomplete and does not exhibit responses to all of the Plaintiff's discovery requests, as the Plaintiff received it).

On April 7, 2022, the Plaintiff filed with the Court its Motion for Summary Judgment in this action.

LEGAL STANDARD FOR MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Under Rule 56 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, summary judgment is properly granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact and where the moving party is entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law. See Laurens Emergency Med. Specialists v. M.S. Baily and Sons Bankers, 355 S.C. 104, 584 S.E.2d 375 (2003); Fleming v. Rose, 350 S.C. 488, 567 S.E.2d 857 (2002); Regions Bank v. Schmauch, 354 S.C. 648, 582 S.E.2d 432 (CT App. 2003). In determining whether any triable issue of fact exists, the evidence and all inferences which can reasonably be drawn therefrom must be viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party. See Sauner v. Public Serv. Auth., 354 S.C. 397, 581 S.E.2d 161 (2003); Hendricks v. Clemson Univ., 353 S.C. 449, 578 S.E.2d 711 (2003).

Additionally, summary judgment is appropriately granted where the pleadings, depositions, answer to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with any affidavits that might have been filed with the court, show that there is no genuine issues as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See Russell v. Wachovia Bank, N.A., 353 S.C. 208, 578 S.E.2d 329 (2003).

Under Rule 56(c), the party seeking summary judgment has the initial burden of demonstrating an absence of a genuine issue of material fact. See Regions Bank, 354 S.C. at 659, 582 S.E.2d at 438; Trivelax v. South Carolina Dept. of Transp., 348 S.C. 125, 558 S.E.2d 271 (St. App. 2001). However, once the party moving summary judgment meets the initial burden of showing an absence of evidentiary support for the opponent's case, the opponent cannot simply rest on mere allegations or denials contained in the pleadings. See Regions Bank, 354 S.C. at 660, 582 S.E.2d at 438. Rather, the non-moving party must come forward with specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue for trial. See SSI Med Servis., Inc. V. Cos, 301 S.C. 493, 392 S.E.2d 789 (1990); Peterson v. West American Ins., Co., 336 S.C. 89, 518 S.E.2d 608 (Ct. App. 1999).

ARGUMENT

1. Did the Defendant enter into a Credit Agreement with the Plaintiff.

The Defendant contends in his Affidavit dated September 1, 2022, that because he does not see his signature on the exemplar of the Sam's Club MasterCard Account Agreement (filed with the Court as Exhibit "4" of the Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment), he denies that there is a contract between the Defendant and the Plaintiff and that he opened an account under that agreement.

The Defendant cannot overcome summary judgment by simply denying that he entered into an agreement with the Plaintiff (See the Defendant's Response to the Plaintiff's Request for Admission Number 1, which, despite the Defendant's ludicrous objection, like the Plaintiff's other Requests for Admissions, was compliant with Rule 36 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure). When the Plaintiff attempted to obtain documentation from the Defendant that would tend to support the Defendant's position that he did not enter into an agreement with the Plaintiff, the Defendant responded by admitting that he did not have any documents responsive to the Plaintiff's request, other than those provided by the Plaintiff through discovery (See the Defendant's responses to the Plaintiff's Requests for Production Number 3 and Number 4). The Court should note that the documents that the Defendant references are the Account Statements and Account Agreement that the Plaintiff has submitted to the Court with the Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment. In particular, the Defendant is unable to provide any documentation showing that he ever disputed the charges assessed to his account during the period of November 20, 2014 through October 26, 2019, as shown by the Account Statements (See the Defendant's Response to the Plaintiff's Request for Production Number 2).

As set forth above, the Defendant contends that the Account Agreement presented to the Court by the Plaintiff does not bear the Defendant's signature and therefore, the Defendant contends that he could not have entered into an agreement with the Plaintiff. This claim does not bear scrutiny. The Plaintiff does not and never has contended that the Defendant signed any contract with the Plaintiff to enter into the agreement underlying the Plaintiff's action or that the Account Agreement submitted to the Court would ever have reflected the Defendant's signature. Rather, the Plaintiff asserts that the Defendant's acceptance and use of the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff, as well as the Defendant's payments towards the balances set forth as due and owing on the subject account created the agreement between the Defendant and the Plaintiff requiring the Defendant to make payment in full of the balance due and owing on the Defendant's Account.

The Defendant's use of a credit card associated with a credit account "creates an enforceable contract," and "each time a cardholder uses his credit card, he accepts the offer by tendering his promise to perform (i.e. to repay the debt upon the terms set forth in the credit card agreement)." Bank of America v. Jarczyk, 268 B.R. 17, 22 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Corbin on Contracts, Revised Ed., § 2.33). Numerous courts have found that the credit card "contract" is created when the consumer uses the card. See, e.g., Heiges v. JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., 521 F. Supp. 2d 641, 647 (N.D. Ohio 2007) (noting that "issuance and use of a credit card creates a legally binding agreement"); Chase Manhattan Bank (N.A.), Bank Americard Div. v. Hobbs, 405 N.Y.S.2d 967 (N.Y. Civ. Ct 1978) (stating that "[t]he defendant's use of the credit card in and of itself constituted proof of an underlying agreement between the account holder and account issuer. The acceptance of a paper which purports to be a contract may be indicated by conduct or acquiescence.") Read v. Gulf Oil Corp., 150 S.E.2d 319, 320 (Ga. Ct. App. 1966) (stating that "[t]he issuance of the card to the [debtor] amounted to a mere offer on plaintiff's part, and the contract became entire when defendant retained the card and thereafter made use of it.") see also In re Simos, 209 B.R. 188 (Bankr. M.D.N.C. 1997) (by using a credit card, the debtor impliedly represents that he has the intention of paying the charges purchased with the card).

Despite the Defendant's claim that he does not recognize the Account Statements provided to him by the Plaintiff, which were provided to him by the Plaintiff at the Defendant's address(es) of record, those same Account Statements show that the Defendant repeatedly accepted and used the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff over a period of several years. This acceptance and use included the Defendant's payment to the US Treasury for taxes assessed to the Defendant and/or the Defendant's household (See the Account Statement dated April 24, 2015), and the Defendant's payment on an insurance policy with Progressive Insurance (See the Account Statement dated September 25, 2017), as well as payment towards two (2) cruises with Carnival Cruise Line (See Account Statements dated January 26, 2016 and September 25, 2017).

Additionally, while the Defendant denies making payments towards the balances set forth as due on this account, those same Account Statements show that payments were made towards the balances set forth as due on the Defendant's Account beginning on December 12, 2014 and continuing through December 12, 2019.

It would seem easy enough for the Defendant to support his claim that he did not make payments towards the balances due on this account by providing copies of his own banking records. However, the Defendant has again failed to provide any documents supporting the Defendant's claim (See the Defendant's Response to the Plaintiff's Discovery wherein Defendant did not actually provide any response or objection to the Plaintiff's Request for Production Number 12 for the Plaintiff to present to the Court).

The documentary evidence provided by the Plaintiff, as well as lack of any countervailing evidence from the Defendant, would argue against the Defendant's claims. Therefore, the Defendant's denials that he does not recognize the account that is the subject of this action and did not enter into an agreement with the Plaintiff, which are contradicted by the evidence before the Court, do not create a genuine issue of fact sufficient to defeat summary judgment. See Scott v. Harris, 550 U.S. 372, 127 S. Ct. 1769, 167 L. Ed. 2d 686 (2007) (holding that "[w]hen opposing parties tell two different stories, one of which is blatantly contradicted by the record, so that no reasonable jury could believe it, a court should not adopt that version of the facts for purposes of ruling on a motion for summary judgment").

2. Does the Defendant owe the Plaintiff the Credit Card Debt in the Amount of $9,000.83.

The evidence presented to the Court proves that the Defendant owes the sum of $9,000.83. However, the Defendant would argue that, because the Defendant does not “recognize” the Account Statements provided to him, at his address(es) of record, by the Plaintiff, that those statements are somehow not relevant to this action. This is manifestly incorrect. The Account Statements provided by the Plaintiff are part of the Plaintiff’s business records pertaining to the Defendant’s Account and cannot be discarded as irrelevant because the Defendant claims that he does not recognize them.

Credit card issuers, such as Synchrony Bank, the Plaintiff herein, operate under a federal regulatory scheme that provides uniformity in credit card reporting and disclosures. See 15 U.S.C. § 1601 et. seq. Card issuers are required by law to issue periodic statements to cardholders. Each periodic account statement includes an itemization of the outstanding balance at the beginning of the statement period, the amount and date of each charge, payment and credit, and any finance charge added to the account during the statement period. See 15 U.S.C. § 1637(b) (prescribing information to be included on each statement).

Moreover, each periodic account statement contains the same information, so that the outstanding balance owed at the end of one billing period will be reflected on the next account statement as the previous balance. Each statement issued on a given credit account includes the same information, pursuant to federal law, and the uniformity of the account statements required by law, creates a presumption that the balance owed by a cardholder for any given billing period, as reflected on an account statement, is accurate and is an accurate reflection of the accrued balance due on the card holder’s account.

The accuracy of the amounts set forth as due and owing on the cardholder’s account is further insured by the cardholder’s ability to contest the charge(s) assessed to the credit card account. Federal law allows a cardholder to report and dispute any entry on a given credit card account statement within sixty (60) days of the receipt of the statement. See 15 U.S.C. § 1666 and C.F.R. § 226.13. In the absence of any dispute by the cardholder, a card issuer may presume that entries on an account statement are correct.

Additionally, the use of a credit card associated with a credit account “creates an enforceable contract,” and “each time a cardholder uses his credit card, he accepts the offer by tendering his promise to perform (i.e. to repay the debt upon the terms and conditions set forth in the credit card agreement).” Bank of America v. Jarczyk, 268 B.R. 17, 22 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2001). The account statements show that the Defendant repeatedly used the credit extended to him through the subject account, and continued to make payments on the subject account until the Defendant’s default, without disputing any balances set forth as due on the Defendant’s Account.

As of October 2019, the Defendant was still using the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff to make purchases of goods and/or services, thus tendering his promise to repay the debt, and in doing so, the Defendant had accrued a balance; as of November 25, 2019, the closing date of the monthly account statement for that billing period, due and owing on the Defendant’s Account in the amount of $7,926.99.

Subsequent to November 25, 2019, the Defendant made a payment towards the balance due on the Defendant’s Account that was posted to the subject account on December 12, 2019. This payment again indicates that the Defendant intended to repay to the Plaintiff, his obligation resulting from his use of the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff.

As of May 24, 2020, the date of charge-off of the Defendant’s Account, the Defendant’s obligation to Citibank was in the amount of $9,000.83. The Account Statement dated April 24, 2020, shows a balance due on the Defendant’s Account in the amount of $8,961.83. Subsequent to April 24, 2020, a late payment fee in the amount of $39.00 was assessed to the Defendant’s Account as outlined in the Late Payment Warning on the April 24, 2020, statement. This resulted in the charge-off balance of $9,000.83.

The Account Statements, which were mailed to the Defendant by the Plaintiff, list purchase(s) made using the Defendant’s Account, as well as payments, fees and finance charges assessed to the subject account. There is no indication that the Defendant disputed his Account Statements, questioned the charges assessed to the subject account, or disputed to Citibank, the balances accruing on the Defendant’s Account on or before May 24, 2020.

The Defendant has not provided any information or documentation to dispute the balance set forth, in the amount of $9,000.83, by the Plaintiff's records, or to show that this balance is not the correct balance due on the Defendant's Account. Simply asserting that he disputes this debt does not create an issue of material fact regarding the balance due on the Defendant's Account. See Regions Bank, 354 S.C. at 660, 582 S.E.2d at 438.

CONCLUSIONS

As demonstrated by the Plaintiff, there are no genuine issues of material fact remaining in this matter. The Defendant accepted and used the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff, failed to pay and is now indebted to the Plaintiff in the amount of $9,000.83. In addition, the Defendant has failed to provide any facts or evidence supporting the claims set forth in the Defendant's Answer or his Affidavit. Accordingly, the Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court enter summary judgment in its favor on the amount set forth as due in the Plaintiff's Complaint.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
In The Court of Appeals

APPEAL FROM MARLBORO
COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

Michael S. Holt, Circuit Court

Judge

Appellate Case No. 2024-000280

Synchrony Bank,

Appellant,

v.

Michael Hudson,

Respondent.

RECORD ON APPEAL

TAB 8

2021CP3400228

PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

4. The Defendant entered into a credit agreement with Synchrony Bank, the Plaintiff herein, pursuant to which, the Plaintiff extended credit to the Defendant in the form of a Sam's Club MasterCard affiliate credit card credit account initially bearing the account number ending in the last four digits XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-2251, which was subsequently transferred to and became the Defendant's Sam's Club MasterCard affiliate credit card credit account bearing the account number ending in the last four digits XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-5478 (hereinafter, the “Defendant’s Account”).

5. The Defendant accepted and used the credit extended to him, in the form of the Defendant’s Account, by the Plaintiff as evidenced by the attached redacted copies of the monthly account statements dated November 24, 2014 through April 24, 2020. Said monthly account statements are attached hereto as Exhibit “1” and are incorporated herein by this reference.

6. Furthermore, the Defendant repeatedly accepted and used the credit extended to him under the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-2251, as shown by the account statements dated November 24, 2014 through May 25, 2018, thus tendering his promise to repay to the Plaintiff the balance incurred on the subject account. Additionally, those statements show that the Defendant made payments towards the balances that the Defendant incurred on the Defendant’s Account.

7. The account statement dated May 25, 2018, shows an ending balance due and owing on the Defendant’s Account in the amount of $3,439.12, with a previous balance due in the amount of $3,528.52. Said statement also shows that the Defendant made a payment in the amount of $150.00 towards the previous balance thus demonstrating that the Defendant intended to repay to the Plaintiff, his obligation resulting from his use of the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff.

8. The account statement dated June 25, 2018, which is the first account statement bearing the account number ending in the last four digits of XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-5478, shows a previous balance due on the subject account in the amount of $0.00. Additionally, said statement shows a balance transfer in the amount of $3,43.12 from the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-2251 to the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-5478 occurring on May 27, 2018.

9. The account statement dated June 25, 2018, also shows that the Defendant used the subject account now bearing the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-5478 multiple times between June 2, 2018 and June 20, 2018. The Defendant also made a payment in the amount of $129.00, that was posted to the Defendant's Account on June 15, 2023.

10. During the time period of May 27, 2018 through October 26, 2018, the Defendant again repeatedly accepted and used the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff in the form of the Defendant's Account bearing the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-5478. Moreover, the Defendant made payments towards the balances incurred on the Defendant's Account through December 12, 2019, without disputing any of the charges or fees, payments or transactions posted to the subject account.

11. The Defendant's acceptance and use of the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff, together with his payments towards the balances due and owing on the subject account, created a contract requiring the Defendant to make payment in full of the balance due and owing on the Defendant's credit account bearing the account number ending in the last four digits XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-5478, also known as the credit account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-2251.

12. On June 20, 2023, the Plaintiff brought its initial Motion for Summary Judgment, which was denied by this Court. At that time, it appeared to the Court that there were genuine issues of material fact as previously set forth herein.

13. The Plaintiff now brings this Motion for Summary Judgment having addressed the Court's concerns pertaining to the account numbers issued to the Defendant's Account. This information, when combined with the information and documentation previously presented to the Court by the Plaintiff and when viewed in their totality, illustrates that there are no genuine issues of material fact remaining and that the Plaintiff is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. (See Dorrell v. S.C. Dep't of Transp., 361 S.C. 312, 605 S.E.2d 12, 18 (2004) holding that the fact that a different circuit court judge previously denied a Motion for Summary Judgment did not preclude the defendant from renewing its motion "once new evidence came to light." And Hill v. York Cty. Sheriff's Dep't, 313 S.C. 303, 437 S.E.2d 179, 180 (Ct. App. 1993) holding an earlier denial of a summary judgment by another circuit court did not dispose of the issue so as to preclude summary judgment.)

14. The Plaintiff has clearly demonstrated to the Court the exact date upon which the Defendant's Account was transferred from the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-2251 to the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-5478. Moreover, the Plaintiff has demonstrated that the Defendant repeatedly accepted and used the credit extended to him by the Plaintiff during the time the Defendant's Account was assigned the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-2251, as well as the time the subject account was assigned the account number XXXX-XXXX-XXXX-5478. Furthermore, the Defendant made payments towards the balances incurred on the Defendant's Account regardless of the account number assigned at the time of those payments.

15. The documentation and information presented to the Court by the Plaintiff shows by a preponderance of the evidence that, pursuant to Rule 56 of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, there is no remaining genuine issue in this matter as to any material fact. The Plaintiff should therefore be entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law as to the Plaintiff's Claim in this action.

16. Furthermore, upon information and belief, the Defendant is neither an infant nor an incompetent person, nor on active duty in military service, nor under any other legal disability.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff moves the Court to enter Summary Judgment in its favor as prayed for in the Complaint.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
 - Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
 - Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.
- You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. 2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution. You may choose not to have your payment collected electronically by sending your payment (with the payment stub), in your own envelope - not the enclosed window envelope, addressed to: P.O. Box 530993, Atlanta, GA 30353-0993 and not the Payment Address.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address; (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S.; (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement; (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon; (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake. You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights if You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

• Account information: Your name and account number.

• Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.

• Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

• We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.

• The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.

• While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.

• We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)

2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.

3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

Payments: Send payments to the address listed on the remittance portion of this statement or pay online.

Notice: See below for your Billing Rights and other important information. Telephoning about billing errors will not preserve your rights under federal law. To preserve your rights, please write to our Billing Inquiries Address, P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Purchases, returns, and payments made just prior to billing date may not appear until next month's statement. When you provide a check as payment, you authorize us either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution. You may choose not to have your payment collected electronically by sending your payment (with the payment stub), in your own envelope – not the enclosed window envelope, addressed to: P.O. Box 530993, Atlanta, GA 30353-0993 and not the Payment Address.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank
P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake. You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank
P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

(Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.

- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.

- Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.

- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.

- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.

- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)

2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.

3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. What To Do If You Think You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
 - Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
 - Description of Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.
- You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Synchrony Bank

P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay we may report you as delinquent.

Information About Payments: You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the total unpaid balance without any additional charge for prepayment. Payments received after 5:00 p.m. (ET) on any day will be credited as of the next day. Credit to your Account may be delayed up to five days if payment (a) is not received at the Payment Address, (b) is not made in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. financial institution located in the U.S., (c) is not accompanied by the remittance coupon attached to your statement, (d) contains more than one payment or remittance coupon, (e) is not received in the remittance envelope provided or (f) includes staples, paper clips, tape, a folded check, or correspondence of any type. Conditional Payments: All written communications concerning disputed amounts, including any check or other payment instrument that: (i) indicates that the payment constitutes "payment in full" or is tendered as full satisfaction of a disputed amount; or (ii) is tendered with other conditions or limitations ("Disputed Payments"), must be mailed or delivered to us at P.O. Box 965003, Orlando, FL 32896-5003.

Credits To Your Account: An amount shown in parentheses or preceded by a minus (-) sign is a credit or credit balance unless otherwise indicated. Credits will be applied to your previous balance immediately upon receipt, but will not satisfy any required payment that may be due.

Credit Reports And Account Information: If you believe that we have reported inaccurate information about you to a consumer reporting agency, please contact us at P.O. Box 965005, Orlando, FL 32896-5005. In doing so, please identify the inaccurate information and tell us why you believe it is incorrect. If you have a copy of the credit report that includes the inaccurate information, please include a copy of that report. We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.

Bankruptcy Notice: If you file bankruptcy you must send us notice, including account number and all information related to the proceeding to the following address: Synchrony Bank, Attn: Bankruptcy Dept., P.O. Box 965060, Orlando, FL 32896-5060.

Balance Subject To Interest Charge Calculation

Daily Balance Method: We figure the interest charge on your account by applying the periodic rate to the "daily balance" of your account for each day in the billing cycle. We then add the interest to the daily balance. To get the "daily balance" we take the beginning balance of your account each day (which includes unpaid interest), add any new charges and applicable fees, and subtract any payments or credits. This gives us the daily balance. Any daily balance of less than zero will be treated as zero. A separate daily balance will be calculated for each balance type on your account. The balance(s) shown in the Interest Charges section of this statement is the sum of the daily balances for each day in the billing cycle divided by the number of days in the billing cycle.
