

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Christopher Lassiter, Appellant,

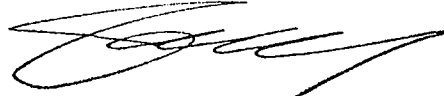

v.

Sherri Lynn Gordon, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2024-002163

ORDER

On December 23, 2024, Appellant filed an appeal from a circuit court order that dismissed his appeal because he failed to post the required bond to stay the magistrate's writ of ejectment while he pursued an appeal in the circuit court. Appellant also filed a motion to stay the circuit court's order, stating requested repairs have not been made to the home and he did not receive notice of the hearing in magistrate's court concerning a bond to stay the writ of ejectment. After careful consideration, we deny Appellant's motion to stay. See Rule 241(c)(1), SCACR ("Except where extraordinary circumstances make it impracticable, an application for an order lifting an automatic stay or for supersedeas must first be made to the lower court or administrative tribunal which entered the order or decision on appeal.").
