Good morning -

We received a notice on December 12th that the transcript was overdue and no extension had been received. We have been corresponding with the court and the court reporter since that time about the extension. We received the email chain below today, and I am concerned that our appeal is going to be dismissed and want to rectify any issues immediately. I have various other email chains regarding the transcripts that can be forwarded to the court if needed.

The court reporter requested an extension from Salley Law Firm on December 16th, even though Salley no longer needed the transcript. We have advised her numerous times that we do need the transcript, and I would have agreed to an extension if one had been requested of me. I am unsure why Salley would agree to an extension for a transcript they no longer needed.

At this time, we have still not received any extension notice although from the extension granted by Salley, it appears the court reporter has until January 14th to produce the transcript.

Please advise if there is anything that we need to provide the court with at this time in regards to this matter. I am concerned that proper procedure is not being followed by the court reporter and do not want our client to suffer any negative consequences.

Thank you,
Alissa Wilson

You are correct, I was mistaken by leaving the Salley Law Firm on the request and not putting the Touma Law Firm. I have spoken with court administration. I will send you another extension notice, which will be my first extension relating to your firm.

Thank you!

Ms. Johnson,

I am utterly confused. You were informed in November that Salley Law Firm didn't need the transcript and we informed you we needed it. You then requested an extension on December 16 from Salley Law Firm...not us. In fact, you never asked us for an extension at any point. I'm concerned this will get our appeal thrown out. Please advise what we are to do at this point in dealing with the court of appeals. This extension has the Leddy attorney on it and not us. The court is asking us about our extension....

Stephanie
