re: State v. Brandon Jamar Davis
Appellate Case No. 2024-002123

Enclosed, please find a copy of the Order from the Stand Your Ground hearing, the appeal paperwork that was filed on your behalf and a letter that I received from the Court of Appeals dated December 30, 2024.

I do not believe that there are any grounds for your appeal, but I filed the paperwork because you asked me to do this. Therefore, you now have to provide the court with your own reasons for the appeal and you must show the court that any issues for appeal were preserved for review by the appellate court. This means that any issues you want to argue on appeal must have been objected to or placed on the record during your guilty plea. The pre-trial matters that we argued prior to the guilty plea were waived when you pled guilty.

You must provide the Court of Appeals with a written statement of your appeal grounds within 20 days of the date of this letter. Any correspondence should include your appellate case number. You must send your statement to the court at:

Wishing you well, I am

Sincerely,
