Ms. Harrison,

We have received your letter dated January 7, 2025, which was directed to the parties in Portundo M. Kimble v. Jays Bar and Grill, LLC, Appellate Case No. 2024-002074. Your letter explained that the Court, having received multiple notices of appeal in this case, has consolidated the two notices of appeal and anticipates receiving one record on appeal. The letter also states that the time for perfecting the appeal will run from the date of service of the last notice of appeal.

We have a question to make sure that we are understanding the letter correctly:

Must Respondent/Appellant perfect its appeal without reference to Appellant/Respondent's filing of its initial brief? We are unsure whether we should go ahead and prepare an initial brief with respect to our appeal, or instead wait and combine our initial brief of Respondent/Appellant with our response to the initial brief of Appellant/Respondent.

Thank you for your guidance on this matter.

Respectfully,

Ryan C. Holt | Member
