U.S. Bank Trust National Association, not in its Individual Capacity, but solely as owner Trustee for the Legacy Trust 2020-GSI, Rushmore Loan Servicing and Goldman Sach Mortgage Company, U.S. Bank and U.S. Bank National Association,.....Respondent, vs.

Jacob Fulks; Florene Fulks,.....Appellants.

THIRD MOTION TO EXTEND DEADLINE TO SERVE AND FILE INITIAL BRIEF AND DESIGNATION OF MATTER ON APPEAL

Appellants hereby moves pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, for a third and final 30-day extension of the time to February 8, 2025 in which to serve and file the Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter on Appeal. The initial brief and designation of matter is currently due on or before January 8, 2025. The grounds for this motion that are good cause to grant the request is as followed:

1. Because Jacob Fulks has been force to discontinue his employment of over 40 years due to medical disability, appellants have been unable to find affordable legal representation and must continue this appeal Pro Se.
2. Appellant Jacob Fulks chemo-treatment has been taxing and has lead to the inability to focus on the appeal. However, the chemo-treatment has been successful the past few weeks and appellants are in a better position to focus on this case.

3. No further extensions on the initial brief and designation of matter will be requested and appellants are prepared to move forward with the case at this time. Accordingly, an extension is needed.

The undersigned has served this document on opposing counsel by email through his email address of record on the date given below.

WHEREFORE Appellant prays for an order extending the time in which to serve and file the Appellant's initial brief to February 8, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,

Jacob Fulks
