Greetings,

Thank you for placing me on notice of this correspondence of from the Court. However, I noticed that the appellant in this matter filed a dismissal request on 12/31/2024. I was never made aware of this filing or received communication from the court that it was filed. Was I supposed to receive a notification of this filing? How do attorneys involved in SC Court of Appeals cases receive notifications from the court when documents are filed? Thanks for this clarification!

With sincere appreciation,
