

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

South Carolina Department of Consumer Affairs,
Respondent,

v.

Lavisha Green, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2024-001652

---

ORDER

---

On November 13, 2024, Respondent filed a motion to dismiss the appeal, arguing this court lacks appellate jurisdiction because (1) Appellant did not timely serve and file the notice of appeal and (2) Appellant failed to file a motion for reconsideration with the Administrative Law Court as required by South Carolina Administrative Law Court Rule 29(D)(4) prior to filing the notice of appeal with this court. Appellant filed a return, opposing the dismissal, and Respondent filed a reply. After careful consideration, we deny Respondent's motion to dismiss without prejudice to the parties addressing this court's appellate jurisdiction in their briefs.<sup>1</sup>

FOR THE COURT

<sup>1</sup> We note Appellant has filed her initial brief and designation of matter. Appellant has the opportunity to address this court's appellate jurisdiction in her initial reply brief. However, should Appellant want to address those issues in her initial brief or amend her designation of matter, Appellant may seek leave of court to serve and file an amended initial brief and designation of matter within twenty days of the date of this order.
