Dear Ms. Harris:

I represent the Respondent, Charleston County Assessor's Office, in the above appeal. Appellant filed a notice of appeal on October 2, 2023, but never filed an initial brief. On November 22, 2024, Appellant was instructed by the Clerk's office to file an initial brief within thirty (30) days, otherwise this appeal would be dismissed. I am writing to inquire as to the status of this appeal. All counsel of record, along with the Appellant, are copied to this correspondence.

With kind regards, I am,

Sincerely,

Re: James K. Holmes v. Charleston County Assessor
Appellate Case No. 2023-001552

Dear Ms. Holmes:

This office is in receipt of your Motion for Reconsideration filed November 1, 2024. Rule 221 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules states that the appellate court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal. No action will be taken on your motion.

You must file the Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter within thirty (30) days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,
