

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Daron Davis, #233384, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2024-001936

ORDER

On August 5, 2024, Appellant moved to proceed in forma pauperis. After careful consideration, we deny the motion without prejudice to Appellant filing a second motion to proceed in forma pauperis showing he is entitled to do so. See Ex Parte Martin, 321 S.C. 533, 535, 471 S.E.2d 134, 134-35 (1995) ("In the absence of a statutory provision allowing the general waiver of filing fees, we conclude motions to proceed in forma pauperis may only be granted where specifically authorized by statute or required by constitutional provisions."). In order to proceed with his appeal, Appellant must, within thirty days of the date of this order, file a motion demonstrating he is entitled to proceed in forma pauperis or file the $250 notice of appeal filing fee.
