Good Afternoon Ms. Kitchings and Counsel;

This will acknowledge receipt of your email concerning oral arguments scheduled for tomorrow, January 22, 2025, before the Court. I do not object to having the arguments cancelled for tomorrow. However, I object to having the matter considered on the filed record. I respectfully request that the oral arguments be rescheduled to take place at the convenience of the Court. Thank you.

Dear Counsel,

Good morning. In recognition of the weather expected to affect many parts of the state tonight and tomorrow morning, the panel wishes to cancel the oral argument scheduled for tomorrow, January 22. If you do not object, the panel has indicated they can decide this matter based on the records and briefs. If anyone desires oral argument, we will reschedule as soon as possible. Please reply to confirm receipt of this email.

Thank you all for your patience, and please stay safe and warm.

Warmly,

Jenny
